The Christly Element of Nurturing (Nursing) One Another

Annual Meeting & Workshop
Saturday, May 16, 1:00 - 3:30 PM

City of Maitland City Council Chambers
1776 Independence Lane, Maitland, Florida

The meeting will launch our new training program for church communities in Florida. Please join us for these very inspiring messages that will have a significant impact on how we care for and comfort one another - church members, family members, and even friends.

Metaphysical Preface - Peggy Watkins, CS

Peggy served on the Wellsprings Board for many years and The Commission that accredits Christian Science nursing homes and facilities throughout the US. She is a practitioner from Lakeland, FL.

Keynote Speaker - Lynne Scheiern

Lynne is the Christian Science nurse that Linda Kohler, president of The Mother Church, interviewed during last year's TMC Annual Meeting. She comes to us from Thousand Oaks, CA, with a wealth of knowledge and experience. She has developed training programs, taught Christian Science nurses training and, as a Christian Science visiting nurse, has worked with churches in helping their members to care for one another along with working with babies, children and families.

Training Coordinator - Jackie Rhodes

Jackie is the program's Christian Science Nursing Training Coordinator. She is based in the St. Petersburg area and also brings her highly skilled practice of Christian Science nursing. She will be working with Christian Science nurses and church communities throughout Florida to set up training venues and develop workshops tailored to the needs of each.

The workshop will be preceded by brief Wellsprings Annual Meeting reports.
